

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Kendall Raczek
DOCKET NO.: 13-23296.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 02-10-100-034-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Kendall Raczek, the appellant, by attorney Julie Realmuto, Attorney at Law and attorney Sheila Gallagher with Gallagher & Gupta, both in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$562
IMPR.:	$23,676
TOTAL:	$24,238

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2013 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 13-year old, two-story single-family townhome of frame exterior construction with 1,600 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a partial basement, three bathrooms, a fireplace and a two-car garage. The property has a 1,251 square foot site and is located in Palatine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2, residential property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. At hearing, the appellant's attorney Julie Realmuto sent attorney Sheila Gallagher to the hearing to represent the appellant.

In support of this argument, the appellant submitted limited information on four equity comparables. They are improved with a two-story, single-family, townhome with frame construction and either two or three bathrooms. They ranged: in age from 32 to 33 years; in building size from 1,632 to 1,836 square feet of living area; and in improvement assessments from $10.61 to $11.56 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $24,238. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $23,676 or $14.80 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables, all of which are located on the subject's block. They are each improved with a 13-year old, two-story, single-family, townhome with frame construction and 1,600 square feet of living area. They each contain improvement assessment at $14.80 per square foot of living area. Amenities include: a partial basement, three bathrooms, one fireplace, and a two-car garage.

At hearing, the parties' representatives rested on the written evidence submissions.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review's comparables #1 through #4. These comparables that are identical to the subject had improvement assessments at $14.80 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $14.80 per square foot of living area is the same as the assessment established by the best comparables in this record. The Board finds that the remaining properties were accorded diminished weight due to the disparity in location, improvement age, size and/or amenities. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(b) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(b)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
