

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Dave Remijas
DOCKET NO.: 13-24455.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 28-12-436-034-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Dave Remijas, the appellant(s), by attorney Abby L. Strauss, of Schiller Strauss & Lavin PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $1,125
IMPR.: $4,679
TOTAL: $5,804

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2013 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board (Board) finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 5,625 square foot parcel of land improved with a 79-year old, one-story, masonry, single-family dwelling containing 989 square feet of building area. The property is located Bremen Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted sales information on two properties that sold, two properties actively listed for sale, and one property pending sale.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $5,804. The subject's total assessment reflects a market value of $58,040 or $58.69 per square foot of living area using the Cook County Real Estate Classification Ordinance level of assessment of 10% for class 2 properties.

In support of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted four sales comparables.

In rebuttal, the appellant submitted a letter addressing the board of review's evidence. This letter asserts that an appraisal was submitted in the appellant's case-in-chief; however, this document is not in evidence.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the best evidence of market value are the appellant's two sold properties and the board of review's comparables #1 and #2. These properties sold from March to December 2012 for prices ranging from $11.00 to $121.75 per square foot of building area. In comparison, the appellant's assessment reflects a market value of $58.69 per square foot of building area which is within the range established by the comparables. Based on the record and after adjustments to the comparables, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject was overvalued and a reduction is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
