

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Kevin Killerman
DOCKET NO.: 13-25509.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-29-408-041-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Kevin Killerman, the appellant(s), by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $28,242
IMPR.: $61,758
TOTAL: $90,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2013 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story, multi-family dwelling of masonry construction with 2,607 square feet of living area, plus an addition that is subject to the home improvement exemption. The dwelling is 124 years old with a two-year old addition. The property has a 5,230 square foot site and is located in Lakeview Township, Cook County. It is classified as Class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables. The appellant failed to take into account the square footage of living area for the subject's addition, yet included its improvement assessment in their calculation when disclosing the subject's improvement assessment per square foot value.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $90,000, including the improvement assessment for the addition. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $49,258 or $18.89 per square foot of living area for the original structure, plus an improvement assessment of $12,500 for the addition.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables. The board of review also disclosed the sale of the subject in December 2010 for $900,000 on its grid sheet.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be all of the comparables submitted by the appellant, as well as comparables #1, #3 and #4 submitted by the board of review. They were most similar to the subject in location, size and amenities. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $14.99 to $22.29 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $18.89 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
