

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Eriketa Icka
DOCKET NO.: 13-25755.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 03-33-412-037-1021

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Eriketa Icka, the appellant(s), by attorney Timothy E. Moran, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 1,064
IMPR.: $ 9,098
TOTAL: $ 10,162

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2013 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of a condominium unit with a 3.42% ownership interest in the common elements. The property is located in Mount Prospect, Wheeling Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. No evidence was submitted as to whether the subject is owner occupied.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted evidence disclosing the subject property was purchased on March 15, 2013 for a price of $61,000. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to 10.00% of the purchase price.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $10,162. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $101,620 when applying the 2013 statutory level of assessment for class 2 property of 10.00% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review submitted a memorandum which shows that four units in the subject's building, or 14.6712% of ownership, sold from January 2007 to October 2012 for an aggregate price of $436,050. An allocation of 2.00% for personal property was subtracted from the sale prices, and then divided by the percentage of interest of the units sold to arrive at a total market value for the building of $2,912,707. The subject's percentage of ownership was then utilized to arrive at a value for the subject of $99,615.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The only evidence submitted in support of the sale of the subject in March 2013 for $61,000 was a settlement statement. The questions in Section IV – Recent Sale Data of the Board's residential appeal form were mostly left unanswered. Thus, there is no evidence to show whether this sale was an arm's-length transaction. The Board finds that the settlement statement is not enough to prove that the subject is overvalued by a preponderance of the evidence. The Board further finds that it could not reduce the subject's assessment based on its recent sale unless that sale was an arm's-length transaction, and there was no evidence submitted to show as such. Therefore, the Board finds that the subject is not overvalued, and a reduction is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
