

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Eric Peck
DOCKET NO.: 13-26041.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-13-213-011-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Eric Peck, the appellant(s), by attorney Anne E. Larsen, of the Law Offices of Frank A. Edelman, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 4,200
IMPR.: $ 39,516
TOTAL: $ 43,716

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2013 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of a two improvements. Improvement #1 is a two-story dwelling of frame construction with 1,000 square feet of living area. Improvement #1 is seven years old. Features of Improvement #1 include a slab and a four-car garage. The property has a 7,000 square foot site, and is located in Forest Park, Proviso Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-05 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. No evidence was submitted as to whether the subject was owner-occupied.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables for Improvement #1. No evidence was submitted regarding Improvement #2.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $43,716. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $39,516.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables for Improvement #1. No evidence was submitted regarding Improvement #2.

Neither party submitted descriptive nor assessment information for Improvement #2. However, both parties submitted a black and white photograph of the subject, which depicts two improvements upon the subject.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The subject's improvement assessment of $39,516 depicts the combined improvement assessment for Improvement #1 and Improvement #2. However, the Board is unable to determine what portion of the total improvement assessment is attributable to Improvement #1. As such, the Board is unable to determine Improvement #1's improvement assessment per square foot to compare it to the comparables submitted by the parties. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed, and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
