

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Stratos Rounis
DOCKET NO.: 13-29770.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 12-04-219-005-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Stratos Rounis, the appellant(s), by attorney Brian P. Liston, of the Law Offices of Liston & Tsantilis, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,240
IMPR.: $16,470
TOTAL: $23,710

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2013 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is a 73 year-old, one-story dwelling of masonry construction containing 935 square feet of living area. The property has an 11,139 square foot site located in Leyden Township, Cook County. The evidence did not disclose whether the subject was owner-occupied in the lien year. The subject is a Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

Although the appellant indicated on the Residential Appeal Petition that he contends the basis of his appeal is comparable sales, the evidence he submitted is based on assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four suggested equity comparables. These comparables ranged from 867 to 957 square feet of living area, but were not in the same neighborhood as the subject.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $23,710. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $16,470, or $17.61 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested equity comparables. These comparables ranged from 1,053 to 1,151 square feet of living area and were in the same neighborhood as the subject.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review's comparable(s) #1, #2, #3 and #4. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $18.53 to $20.28 per square foot of living area. These comparables were in the same neighborhood as the subject, all within ¼ mile. The appellant's comparables were not in the same neighborhood as the subject. The subject's improvement assessment of $17.61 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and holds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(b) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(b)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
