

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Dan Hill
DOCKET NO.: 13-29797.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-25-207-009-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Dan Hill, the appellant(s), by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 6,000
IMPR.: $ 29,786
TOTAL: $ 35,786

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2013 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of a one-story dwelling of frame construction. The dwelling is 117 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement. The property has a 3,000 square foot site, and is located in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-02 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $35,786. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $29,786.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables. The board of review's evidence also states that the subject contains a class 2-88 home improvement exemption. According to the board of review, the market value of the subject's home improvement exemption is $229,000, which accounts for $15,400 of the subject's improvement assessment. The board of review argues, in a supplemental brief, that the appellant's uniformity analysis failed to account for the home improvement exemption, and that the subject's assessment is uniform with other, similar property when the home improvement exemption is taken into consideration.

Conclusion of Law

Initially, the Board finds that the subject's home improvement exemption must be taken into account. Therefore, the subject's improvement assessment, for purposes of this uniformity analysis is $14,386, or $21.93 per square foot of living area, when using the subject's square footage of 656 square feet of living area that is not subject to the home improvement exemption.

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparables #3 and #4, and board of review comparables #2, #3, and #4. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $19.53 to $26.11 per square foot of living area. The subject's assessment of $21.93 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed, and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
