

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Shawna Li
DOCKET NO.: 13-31653.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-09-303-068-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Shawna Li, the appellant(s), by attorney Herbert B. Rosenberg, of Schoenberg Finkel Newman & Rosenberg LLC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 2,622
IMPR.: $ 39,320
TOTAL: $ 41,942

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2013 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of a three-story dwelling of masonry construction with 1,966 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 14 years old. Features of the home include a slab, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a one-car garage. The property has a 1,049 square foot site, and is located in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-95 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. No evidence was submitted as to whether the subject was owner-occupied.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables. All of these comparables were located outside the subject's townhome development.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $48,949. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $46,327, or $23.56 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables and two sale comparables. All of these comparables were located within the subject's townhome development.

In rebuttal, the appellant argued that all of the board of review's comparables are from the same townhome development as the subject, and that those comparables' assessments are being challenged. As such, the appellant argued that the Board is precluded from using those comparables' assessments, as a matter of law, in determining the subject's correct assessment for tax year 2013, and cites Pace Realty Group, Inc. v. Property Tax Appeal Bd., 306 Ill App.3d 718 (2d Dist. 1999), in support of this argument.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant comparables #1, #2, and #3. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $17.32 to $21.95 per square foot of living area. The subject's assessment of $23.56 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in this record. The board of review's comparables were given no weight in the Board's analysis. Pace Realty, 306 Ill.App.3d at 728 (The Board "errs as a matter of law when it selects as a comparable a parcel of property which has also received the same contested assessment. Conducting uniformity analysis in such a manner will lead to absurd results and will render the assessment appeal process meaningless."). Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed, and a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
