

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: SRP Sub, LLC
DOCKET NO.: 13-32081.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 31-14-302-017-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are SRP Sub, LLC, the appellant(s), by attorney Abby L. Strauss, of Schiller Strauss & Lavin PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $5,193
IMPR.: $6,307
TOTAL: $11,500

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2013 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is a 36 year-old, two-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction containing 2,346 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a two-car garage. The property has a 15,979 square foot site and is located in Rich Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted the settlement statement disclosing the subject was purchased by the appellant from Right Residential LLC on November 27, 2013 in an "as is" condition and for the price of $115,000 in an all-cash transaction. The appellant also submitted the Real Property Transfer Tax Declaration (hereinafter, "Declaration") disclosing the subject property was purchased by appellant SRP Sub LLC and sold from Right Residential LLC on November 27, 2013 for a price of $115,000. Title was conveyed by Warranty Deed. The appellant also submitted a Multiple Listing Service (hereinafter, "MLS") listing information sheet disclosing the sales history of the subject, as follows: Right Residential LLC (hereinafter, "Right Residential") took title from the Judicial Sales Corporation (hereinafter, "Judicial Sales") on July 15, 2013 for the price of $75,000 by a Foreclosure Deed; this transaction was recorded on November 22, 2013; Right Residential conveyed title to the subject to SRP Sub LLC, the appellant herein, on November 27, 2013 by a Warranty Deed for the price of $115,000; this transaction was recorded on December 19, 2013. In addition to the MLS information sheet, the appellant also submitted the Real Estate Contract and information in Section IV–Recent Sale Data of the Residential Appeal that the subject was not sold as a transfer between related parties, was advertised and sold through a realtor, and was sold in settlement of a contract for deed. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to reflect the purchase price when applying the 2013 level of assessment of 10.00% for Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $18,589. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $185,890, or $79.24 per square foot of living area, when applying the 2013 level of assessment of 10.00% for Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested comparable sales and on the November 2013 sale of the subject for $115,000. The board of review also submitted a brief arguing the sale from Right Residential to the appellant SRP Sub LLC was not for fair cash value and was, therefore, compulsory. Appended to the brief was a print-out from the Cook County Recorder of Deeds website, commonly known as a "deed trail." It disclosed the same sales and title history as the MLS information sheet submitted by the appellant. The board of review argued that because Judicial Sales conveyed title to Right Residential in or about August 2013, the conveyance from Right Residential to the appellant SRP Sub LLC in November 2013 by a Warranty Deed was compulsory. The board of review also submitted a brief arguing the appellant submitted improper evidence of market value comparables.

In rebuttal, the appellant argued that the comparables submitted as evidence by the board of review should be given diminished weight because they were dissimilar to the subject in various key property characteristics. The appellant reaffirmed the request for an assessment reduction.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property in November 2013 for a price of $115,000. The appellant provided evidence demonstrating the sale had the elements of an arm's-length transaction. The appellant provided information in Section

IV-Recent Sale Data of the appeal disclosing the parties to the transaction were not related, the property was sold using a Realtor, and the property had been advertised on the open market with the Multiple Listing Service. The appellant incorrectly listed Judicial Sales as the seller of the subject to the appellant. In further support of the transaction, the appellant submitted a copy of the sales contract, the MLS information sheet, and the Declaration. The board of review's argument that the transfer from Right Residential to the appellant SRP Sub LLC was compulsory is misplaced.

A "compulsory sale" is defined as:

(i) the sale of real estate for less than the amount owed to the mortgage lender or mortgagor, if the lender or mortgagor has agreed to the sale, commonly referred to as a "short sale" and (ii) the first sale of real estate owned by a financial institution as a result of a judgment of foreclosure, transfer pursuant to a deed in lieu of foreclosure, or consent judgment, occurring after the foreclosure proceeding is complete.

35 ILCS 200/1-23.

At most, the deed trail and the sales history disclose the sale of the subject from Right Residential to the appellant for $115,000 was a few months after Right Residential came into title from Judicial Sales for $75,000. There is no evidence in the record that the sale from Right Residential to the appellant in November 2013 was compulsory, as defined by Section 1-23 of the Property Tax Code (Id.).

As to the board of review's argument that the appellant submitted improper evidence of market value comparables, the Board finds the record does not contain such evidence submitted by the appellant. The only evidence of record from the appellant was in support of the argument of overvaluation based on the recent sale.

Based on this record the Board finds the subject property had a market value of $115,000 as of January 1, 2013 and that a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified. Since market value has been determined, the 2013 level of assessment of 10.00% for Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance shall apply.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
