

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Goodman Chicago Condos, LLC
DOCKET NO.: 13-36091.001-R-1 through 13-36091.002-R-1
PARCEL NO.: See Below

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Goodman Chicago Condos, LLC, the appellant(s), by attorney John P. Brady, of Thomas M. Tully & Associates in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

DOCKET NO	PARCEL NUMBER	LAND	IMPRVMT	TOTAL
13-36091.001-R-1	15-13-224-042-1016	377	3,067	$3,444
13-36091.002-R-1	15-13-224-042-1027	88	1,511	$1,599

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) challenging the assessment for the 2013 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a condominium unit and parking space within an 83-year old, multi-story, 44-unit, condominium building. The property is located in Proviso Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of the overvaluation argument, the appellant submitted evidence disclosing the subject property was purchased December 2010 for a price of $29,000. The appellant included a copy of the settlement statement. The appellant requests a reduction to $5,043 which reflects the 2012 assessment after a 2012 Board reduction.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $8,401. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $84,010 when using the level of assessment for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. The notes on appeal has a handwritten note that there is no homeowner exemption.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four sales from units/parking spaces within the subject's building. These units sold from May 2006 to May 2008 for prices from $1.00 to $126,000.

At hearing, the appellant's attorney argued that the subject was listed on the open market prior to sale which was an arm's length transaction. The board of review rested on the evidence previously submitted.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property in December 2010 for a price of $29,000. The appellant submitted evidence of the sale while the board of review did not present any evidence to challenge the arm's-length nature of the transaction. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant has shown by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject is overvalued and a reduction to that requested by the appellant is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
