

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Arden L. & Jill A. King
DOCKET NO.: 14-01112.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 11-04-12-102-025-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Arden L. & Jill A. King, the appellants; and the Will County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Will County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $33,866
IMPR.: $62,501
TOTAL: $96,367

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellants timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Will County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2014 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one and one-half story brick dwelling that has 3,432 square feet of living area. The dwelling was built in 2000. Features include an unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a 1,092 square foot garage. The subject has a 1.13 acre site. The subject property is located in Lockport Township, Will County, Illinois.

The appellants submitted evidence before the Property Tax Appeal Board claiming overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellants submitted information pertaining to the sale of the subject property. The appellants' appeal petition indicates the subject property sold in February 2013 for $290,000. The appeal petition revealed the subject property was sold by with the assistance of a Realtor; the property was advertised for sale through the Multiple Listing Service for at least 161 days; and the parties to the transaction were not related. The appellants submitted the settlement statement and Multiple Listing Service sheet associated with the sale of the subject property. The appellants also submitted the listing history of the subject property which shows the subject had been listed for sale on and off the open market since June of 2009 with periodic price reductions. Based on this evidence, the appellants requested a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $125,501. The subject's assessment reflects an estimated market value of $377,674 or $110.45 per square foot of living area including land when applying the 2014 three-year average median level of assessment for Will County of 33.23%.

In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review submitted a three comparable sales, two of which are located in a different subdivision than the subject. The evidence was prepared by the township assessor. The comparables consist of two-story dwellings of brick or frame exterior construction that were built from 1991 to 1996. Features had varying degrees of similarity when compared to the subject. The dwellings range in size from 2,298 to 4,997 square feet of living area and are situated in sites that contain from 1.4 to 2.41 acres of land area. The comparables sold from August 2013 to September 2014 for prices ranging from $360,000 to $387,500 or from $72.04 to $168.62 per square foot of living area including land. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellants contend the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellants met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value contained in this record is the sale of the subject property in February 2013 for $290,000. The Board finds the subject's sale meets the fundamental elements of an arm's-length transaction. The buyer and seller were not related and the subject property was exposed to the open market for over 161 days. The Board finds there is no direct evidence the parties were under duress or compelled to buy or sell. The Illinois Supreme Court has defined fair cash value as what the property would bring at a voluntary sale where the owner is ready, willing, and able to sell but not compelled to do so, and the buyer is ready, willing and able to buy but not forced to do so. Springfield Marine Bank v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 44 Ill.2d. 428, (1970). A contemporaneous sale of two parties dealing at arm's-length is not only relevant to the question of fair cash value but is practically conclusive on the issue of whether an assessment is reflective of market value. Korzen v. Belt Railway Co. of Chicago, 37 Ill.2d 158 (1967). The subject's assessment reflects an estimated market value of $377,674, which is more than its recent sale price of $290,000. Of importance, the Board finds the board of review did not address nor present any evidence to refute the subject's sale price or that would demonstrate the subject's sale was not an arm's-length transaction.

With respect to the comparable sales submitted by the board of review, only one comparable is located within the same subdivision as the subject. This property contains twice the amount of land and has 1,565 more square feet of living area than the subject. It sold for $360,000 or $72.04 per square foot of living area including land. The Board finds this sale lends support to the subject's sale price of $290,000 or $84.50 per square foot of living area including land and further demonstrates the subject's assessed value of $377,674 or $110.45 per square foot of living area including land is excessive.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
