

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Jacqueline Boden
DOCKET NO.: 14-03384.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-11-300-424

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Jacqueline Boden, the appellant, by attorney Mary Anne Phelan, of Much Shelist in Chicago; and the Lake County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $8,394
IMPR.: $52,267
TOTAL: $60,661

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2014 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story dwelling of frame construction with 1,140 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1982. Features of the home include a partial basement with finished area, central air conditioning, two fireplaces and a 231 square foot garage. The property has a 1,140 square foot site and is located in, Lake Barrington, Cuba Township, Lake County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity regarding the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables. The comparables had improvement assessments ranging from $28,305 to $38,775 or from $24.83 to $33.60 per square foot of living area. The comparables had varying degrees of similarity to the subject. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $60,661. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $52,267 or $45.85 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on eight equity comparables. The comparables had improvement assessments ranging from $43,522 to $60,710 or from $37.71 to $53.77 per square foot of living area. The comparables had varying degrees of similarity to the subject.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparable #1 and the board of review comparables #1 through #4. The features of these comparables were most similar to the subject. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $24.83 to $46.72 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $45.85 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
