

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Salim Ani
DOCKET NO.: 14-20957.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-34-201-024-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Salim Ani, the appellant; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $20,317
IMPR.: $29,983
TOTAL: $50,300

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Analysis

The subject property is an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board in the prior year under docket number 2013-21043.001-R-1. In that appeal, the Property Tax Appeal Board rendered a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $50,300 based on the evidence submitted by the parties. The Board issued its final decision in the 2013 appeal on September 18, 2015. The appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $500,000 as of August 17, 2012. In rebuttal, the appellant filed a brief arguing that the Board's decision in the 2013 appeal should be rolled-over to the 2014 tax lien in the instant appeal. The appellant attached a copy of the Board's 2013 decision to his rebuttal brief. The subject property is located in New Trier Township, Cook County, and is a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment

Classification ordinance. At hearing, the appellant testified that he owned and occupied the subject property during the entire year of 2014.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal," wherein it asserted the final assessment of the subject property was $82,925. The board of review submitted descriptions and assessment information on four comparables to demonstrate the subject's assessment reflected the property's market value.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. Pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185), the Board finds the prior year's decision should be carried forward to the subsequent year subject only to equalization.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) provides in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's 2013 assessment. The record further indicates that the subject property is an owner-occupied dwelling and that 2013 and 2014 are within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's-length transaction subsequent to the Board's decision or that the assessment year in question is in a different general assessment period. In fact, the appellant testified that he owned and occupied the subject property during the entire year of 2014. For these reasons, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the Board's prior year's decision plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
