

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Augustine Ponnezhan
DOCKET NO.: 14-21361.001-R-1 through 14-21361.003-R-1
PARCEL NO.: See Below

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Augustine Ponnezhan, the appellant(s), by attorney Joanne Elliott, of Elliott & Associates, P.C. in Des Plaines; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

DOCKET NO	PARCEL NUMBER	LAND	IMPRVMT	TOTAL
14-21361.001-R-1	28-25-117-025-1001	116	4,230	$4,346
14-21361.002-R-1	28-25-117-025-1004	91	3,323	$3,414
14-21361.003-R-1	28-25-117-025-1023	103	3,745	$3,848

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2014 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of three residential condominium units contained in a 37 year-old residential condominium development of 23 units. The property has a 10,034 square foot site and is located in Bremen Township, Cook County. The property is a Class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the appellant submitted a condominium analysis with information on suggested comparable sales for three units in the building which sold from 2007 through 2010. The appellant submitted Multiple Listing Service information sheets on each of these three sale comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $11,608. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $116,080 when applying the 2014 level of assessment of 10.00% for Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted a condominium analysis with information on suggested comparable sales for three units in the building which sold from 1999 through 2008.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds that the sale comparables submitted by both the appellant and the board of review are not recent. These sale comparables sold from 1999 through 2010. Proof of the market value of the subject requires “documentation of not fewer than three recent sales of suggested comparable properties...” [emphasis added] 86 Ill.Admin.Code§1910.65(c)(4). Based on this evidence, the Board finds that the appellant did not prove overvaluation by a preponderance of the evidence found anywhere in the record. A reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
