

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Cothran
DOCKET NO.: 14-26606.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 04-24-310-005-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Cothran, the appellant, by attorney John S. Xydakis of the Law Offices of John S. Xydakis in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $14,989
IMPR.: $32,537
TOTAL: $47,526

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2014 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction with 1,884 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 75 years old. Features of the home include a partial unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a one-car garage. The property has a 19,341 square foot site and is located in Northbrook, Northfield Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $47,526. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $32,537 or $17.27 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

Both parties presented assessment data on a total of seven suggested comparables. The Board finds that none of the comparables submitted were sufficiently similar to the subject. The appellant's comparables differed from the subject in design and central air conditioning;¹ comparables #1 and #2 had more living area; and comparable #2 also differed in foundation. The board of review comparables had significantly more living area than the subject and were also considerably newer. The Board notes that all of the comparables submitted had improvement assessments that ranged from $9.85 to $27.86 per square foot of living area. After considering adjustments and the differences in both parties' comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment of $17.27 per square foot of living area seems equitable and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

¹ Although the appellant's comparable #3 was described as a one-story residence, photographic evidence submitted by the appellant indicates this dwelling is actually one and one-half story in design.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
