

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mohammed Dajani
DOCKET NO.: 14-32949.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-01-425-015-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Mohammed Dajani, the appellant(s), by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 6,300
IMPR.: $33,812
TOTAL: $40,112

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2014 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of two improvements. Improvement #1 is a two-story, multi-family dwelling of masonry construction with 3,140 square feet of living area. Improvement #2 is a one and one-half-story dwelling of masonry construction with 1,446 square feet of living area. The property has a 3,150 square foot site and is located in West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $40,112. Subject Improvement #1 has an improvement assessment of $21,582 or $6.87 per square foot of living area. Subject Improvement #2 has an improvement assessment of $12,230 or $8.46 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables for Improvement #1 and four comparables for Improvement #2.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity for Improvement #1 to be the appellant's comparables. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $7.50 to $8.24 per square foot of living area. Subject Improvement #1's assessment of $6.87 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the best comparables in this record. The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity for Improvement #2 to be the board of review's comparables. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $8.82 to $8.96 per square foot of living area. Subject Improvement #2's assessment of $8.46 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

the session of the Board of Review at which assessments for the subsequent year are being considered, the taxpayer may, within 30 days after the date of written notice of the Property Tax Appeal Board's decision, appeal the assessment for the subsequent year directly to the Property Tax Appeal Board."
