

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Paula Lingo
DOCKET NO.: 14-33299.001-R-1 through 14-33299.002-R-1
PARCEL NO.: See Below

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Paula Lingo, the appellant(s), by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

DOCKET NO	PARCEL NUMBER	LAND	IMPRVMT	TOTAL
14-33299.001-R-1	17-22-110-114-1066	6,746	46,274	$53,020
14-33299.002-R-1	17-22-110-114-1209	454	3,120	$3,574

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2014 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a seven-year-old, residential condominium unit with property index number (PIN) ending with -1066 and a parking spot with PIN ending in -1209, located within 438-unit residential building. The property has a 107,057 square foot site and is located in South Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on 25 suggested comparable sales. In addition, the appellant submitted a brief arguing that subject building sold for $12,290,651 on an unspecified date. Based on the sale of the subject building, the unit's percentage of ownership, and after deducting 5% for personal property, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to $49,205 for the apartment unit and $2,074 for the parking space.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $56,594. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $565,940 when applying the 2014 level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted a condominium analysis estimating the subject's market value based on the 2013 sale of another unit within the same building for $717,083. Based on the percentage of ownership of the unit that sold, the board of review found the full value of the entire building. Multiplying the subject's percentage of ownership by the full value of the building, the board of review found the market value of the subject.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be all of the appellant's comparable sales, and the board of review's comparable sale. These comparables sold for prices ranging from $365,000 to $717,083 per unit. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $565,940, which is within the range established by the best comparable sales in this record. Based on this evidence the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
