

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ann Van Essen
DOCKET NO.: 14-33971.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-33-302-043-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ann Van Essen, the appellant, by Christopher G. Walsh, Jr., Attorney at Law in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $29,512
IMPR.: $157,588
TOTAL: $187,100

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry construction with 5,270 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 25 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a two and one-half car garage. The property has a 4,216 square foot site and is located in Chicago, North Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-09 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The subject property is an owner occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under docket number 13-34638.001-R-1. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board rendered a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $187,100 based on the evidence submitted by the parties. The appellant's attorney asserted that the appellant's 2014 appeal is a "rollover" appeal permitted by Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. The 2013 and 2014 assessment years were within the same general assessment period for residential property. The appellant also submitted a copy of a Cook County Exemption Information sheet revealing the subject property received a Homeowner Exemption for 2010.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the final assessment of the subject property totaling $216,334 was disclosed. The board of review submitted descriptions and assessment information on three comparables to demonstrate the subject was being assessed uniformly. One of the comparables sold in June 2011 for $1,450,000. The board of review did not address whether the subject property was an owner occupied property in 2014, as asserted by the appellant's attorney.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. Pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185), the Board finds the prior year's decision should be carried forward to the subsequent year subject only to equalization.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) provides in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's 2013 assessment. The record further indicates that the subject property had previously received an owner occupied exemption and that 2013 and 2014 are within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction subsequent to the Board's decision or that the assessment year in question is in a different general assessment period. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the Board's prior year's decision plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
