

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Emad Toma
DOCKET NO.: 14-34681.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-13-314-018-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Emad Toma, the appellant, by attorney Christopher G. Walsh, Jr., in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $5,950
IMPR.: $9,560
TOTAL: $15,510

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) challenging the assessment for the 2014 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with a two-story multi-family building of masonry construction with 2,958 square feet of living area. The building is approximately 56 years old. Features of the property include a full basement with a formal recreation room and a 1.5-car garage. The property has an 8,500-square foot site and is located in Evanston, Evanston Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of this argument the appellant submitted evidence disclosing the subject property was purchased on November 7, 2012, for a price of $155,100. The appellant disclosed the subject property was purchased from the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation. The appellant provided a copy of the Real Property Transfer Tax Declaration associated with the sale disclosing the property had been advertised for sale and provided a copy of the settlement statement documenting the purchase price.

The appellant disclosed the subject property had a total assessment of $30,501, which reflects a market value of $305,010 when using the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance level of assessments for class 2-11 property of 10%. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to reflect the purchase price.

The board of review did not timely submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" and evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the only evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property in November 2012 for a price of $155,100. The appellant provided evidence demonstrating the sale had elements of an arm's length transaction. The board of review did not timely submit any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property or to refute the appellant's argument as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board and is found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a) & §1910.69(a). The Board has examined the information submitted by the appellant and finds that it supports a reduction in the assessed valuation of the subject property.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
