Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a 2013 final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) in order to challenge the assessment for the 2014 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is a three-story, six-unit, brick condominium building with a finished basement that is 104 years old. The property has a 6,926 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant in this appeal submitted documentation alleging that the subject property was improperly assessed and that the 2013 and 2014 tax years were within the same general assessment period in Jefferson Township. The subject property was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under Docket Number 13-28969.001-R-1 through 13-28969.006-R-1 wherein, by agreement of the parties, the total assessment of the six parcels was reduced to $100,000. The subject parcels have a total assessment for tax year 2014 of $129,265. This evidence was timely filed by the appellant pursuant to the procedural rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the same assessment for each of the six parcels for tax year 2014 as was afforded for tax year 2013.

The board of review did not timely submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" nor any evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property.

Conclusions of Law

The appellant in this appeal submitted evidence in support of the contention that the subject property was not accurately assessed. The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property as required by Section 1910.40(a) of the procedural rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has examined the information submitted by the appellant and finds that it supports a reduction in the assessed valuation of the subject property commensurate with the appellant's request.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
