

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Jun Chen
DOCKET NO.: 15-02459.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 06-18-428-009

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Jun Chen, the appellant, by attorney Kelly Murray of the Law Offices of Michael R. Davies, Ltd., in Oaklawn; and the Lake County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 5,154
IMPR.: $29,310
TOTAL: $34,464

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of vinyl siding exterior construction that has 1,448 square feet of living area. The dwelling was built in 1975. Features include central air conditioning, a fireplace and a 520 square foot detached garage. The subject property is located in Avon Township, Lake County, Illinois.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The subject's land assessment was not contested. In support of the inequity claim, the appellant submitted 17 assessment comparables located within 1.67 miles from the subject. The comparables had varying degrees of similarity when compared to the subject. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $15,962 to $30,067 or from $11.02 to $20.09 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the subject's final assessment of $34,464. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $29,310 or $20.24 per square foot of living area.

In support of the subject's assessment, the board of review submitted four assessment comparables located in close proximity to the subject. The comparables had varying degrees of similarity when compared to the subject. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $28,547 to $29,806 or from $19.71 to $20.58 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer argued assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant failed to meet this burden of proof.

The record contains 21 assessment comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gave less weight to comparables #4, #9 and #17 submitted by the appellant. Comparables #4 and #9 are located over one mile from the subject. Comparable #17 is an outlier due to its lower improvement assessment in comparison to all other comparables contained in the record without explanation. The Board finds the remaining 18 comparables are more similar when compared to the subject in location, design, age, dwelling size and features. They have improvement assessments ranging from $27,656 to $30,067 or from $18.96 to $20.58 per square foot of living area. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $29,310 or $20.24 per square foot of living area, which falls within the range established by the most similar comparables contained in the record. After considering adjustments to the comparables for any differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is supported and no reduction is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
