

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Rafique Mota MVG Properties, LLC
DOCKET NO.: 15-20840.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 28-29-200-021-1030

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Rafique Mota MVG Properties, LLC, the appellant(s), by attorney Nancy Pina, of the Law Office of Nancy Pina in Broadview; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $631
IMPR.: $8,617
TOTAL: $9,248

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is a residential condominium unit contained in a 25 year-old, 141-unit residential condominium development. The property has a 218,706 square foot site located in Bremen Township, Cook County. The record does not disclose whether the subject was owner-occupied in the lien year. The property is a Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted a settlement statement disclosing the subject property was purchased on April 30, 2015 for $50,000 in an all-cash transaction. The appellant also submitted a Multiple Listing Service information listing sheet disclosing the subject was offered as a short sale. The appellant included information in Section IV–Recent Sale Data of the Residential Appeal that the subject was not sold as a transfer between related parties, was advertised and sold through a realtor, and was sold in settlement of a foreclosure. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to reflect the purchase price when using the 2015 level of assessment of 10.00% for Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $9,248. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $92,480 when using the 2015 level of assessment of 10.00% for Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. The board of review submitted a list of the percentages of common elements ownership for each unit owner. Each unit was designated by a separate Property Index Number (hereinafter, "PIN"). The subject was designated PIN 1030. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted a condominium analysis with information on suggested comparable sales for two units in the building which sold in 2010 for a total consideration of $202,000. These two units, PIN 1046 and PIN 1085, owned 0.678% and 0.7431% of the common elements, respectively. The board of review disclosed the units sold consisted of 1.4216% of all units in the building. The result was a full value of the property at $14,209,341. Since the subject owned 0.6415% of the common elements, the board of review suggested the market value of the subject to be $91,153.

At hearing, the appellant admitted the subject was sold short. The appellant argued that the subject's sale was still an arm's-length transaction and, therefore, is evidence of its fair cash value. Appellant's counsel referred to a prior decision of the Board as support for this argument. The appellant's attorney also argued that the appellant was denied due process because he was not able to respond to the board of review's evidence. Appellant's counsel offered a copy of a prior Board decision as legal support for this argument. The Board allowed the copy of that decision into evidence as A Exhibit #1.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant has not met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant's argument that he was denied due process because of an inability to respond in rebuttal to the board of review's Notes on Appeal and evidence is utterly without merit. The Board's Rules clearly address the opportunity of a party to file written or documentary rebuttal evidence "to explain, repel, counteract or disprove facts given in evidence by an adverse party..." 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.66(a). A careful reading of this Rule would alert any party to the opportunity to rebut the board of review's evidence. The appellant's reliance on the Board's decision in the appellant's A Exhibit #1 is of no relevance. There, the Board explained that a party may not introduce new evidence on rebuttal. "A party to the appeal shall be precluded from submitting its own case in chief in the guise of rebuttal evidence." 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.69(c). To state the obvious, the board of review's evidence in the instant appeal was offered as its case in chief, not as rebuttal. As such, it was not new rebuttal evidence as contemplated by the Rule. Supra.

In addressing the appellant's market value argument, the Board finds that the sale of the subject in April 2015 for $50,000 is a compulsory sale. The evidence disclosed that the subject was sold short. The evidence disclosed that the subject was sold as "REO" property. REO is an abbreviation for "real estate owned." Black's Law Dictionary, "REO" (10th ed. 2014). Real Estate Owned is defined as "Property acquired by a lender, usu. through foreclosure, in satisfaction of a debt. - Abbr. REO." Black's Law Dictionary, "real estate owned" (10th ed. 2014).

A "compulsory sale" is defined as:

(i) the sale of real estate for less than the amount owed to the mortgage lender or mortgagor, if the lender or mortgagor has agreed to the sale, commonly referred to as a "short sale" and (ii) the first sale of real estate owned by a financial institution as a result of a judgment of foreclosure, transfer pursuant to a deed in lieu of foreclosure, or consent judgment, occurring after the foreclosure proceeding is complete.

35 ILCS 200/1-23.

Real property in Illinois must be assessed at its fair cash value, which can only be estimated absent any compulsion on either party.

Illinois law requires that all real property be valued at its fair cash value, estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale where the owner is ready, willing, and able to sell but not compelled to do so, and the buyer is likewise ready, willing, and able to buy, but is not forced to do so.

Bd. of Educ. of Meridian Cmty. Unit Sch. Dist. No. 223 v. Ill. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 961 N.E. 2d 794, 802 (2d Dist. 2011) (citing Chrysler Corp. v. Ill. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 69 Ill. App. 3d 207, 211 (2d Dist. 1979)).

The evidence proves the subject's sale was compulsory. The appellant has not produced evidence that it was sold at fair cash value as mandated by law. However, the Illinois General Assembly recently provided very clear guidance for the Board regarding compulsory sales. Section 16-183 of the Illinois Property Tax Code states as follows:

The Property Tax Appeal Board shall consider compulsory sales of the comparable properties for the purpose of revising and correcting assessments, including those compulsory sales of comparable properties submitted by the taxpayer.

35 ILCS 200/16-183. Therefore, the Board is statutorily required to consider compulsory sales of comparable properties submitted by the parties to revise and/or correct the subject's assessment. The Board may consider market value evidence, such as sales of comparable properties submitted by the parties, to determine whether the subject was sold at fair cash value. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c)(4); See Calumet Transfer LLC v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 401 Ill.App.3d 652 (1st Dist. 2010).

The appellant did not submit additional evidence, including sales of comparable properties. Although the board of review submitted sales of two units, they sold too long ago in 2010 to be considered recent sales. The only evidence is the subject's sale, for which there is ample documentary and testimonial evidence was compulsory. The record does not contain evidence that this compulsory sale was an arm's-length transaction for fair case value, as required by law. Based on this evidence, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
