

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Dave Remiasz
DOCKET NO.: 15-21416.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 22-29-224-011-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Dave Remiasz, the appellant(s), by attorney Robert J. Paul, Attorney at Law in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 4,504
IMPR.: $ 29,082
TOTAL: $ 33,586

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry construction with 3,456 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 47 years old. Features of the home include a slab. The property has a 10,011 square foot site, and is located in Lemont, Lemont Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. No evidence was submitted as to whether the subject was owner-occupied.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables.

The appellant's evidence also states that the subject was purchased in July 2012 for $260,000; however, no evidence was submitted in support of this sale.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $33,586. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $29,082, or $8.41 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information of four equity comparables. The board of review's evidence also states that the subject was purchased in July 2012 for $260,000.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant comparables #1 and #2, and board of review comparables #1 and #2. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $7.01 to $8.61 per square foot of living area. The subject's assessment of $8.41 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed, and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The parties' evidence regarding the sale of the subject in July 2012 was given no weight in the Board's analysis, as neither party submitted evidence in support of the arm's length nature of this purported transaction.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
