

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Brian Leschinski
DOCKET NO.: 15-22812.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 08-28-218-003-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Brian Leschinski, the appellant, by attorney John S. Xydakis, of the Law Offices of John S. Xydakis in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,681
IMPR.: $13,454
TOTAL: $16,135

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction. The dwelling is approximately 56 years old and has 1,171 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a concrete slab foundation and a one-car garage. The property has a 7,150-square foot site and is located in Elk Grove Village, Elk Grove Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables with the same assigned neighborhood and classification codes as the subject. The comparables are improved with one-story dwellings of frame and masonry construction. The dwellings are from 52 to 55 years old and contain from 1,335 to 1,409 square feet of living area. None of the appellant's comparables have a basement, but two comparables have central air conditioning. Information regarding garages was not provided on the appellant's grid analysis. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $16,500 to $18,134 or from $9.19 to $10.02 per square foot of living area. The appellant also submitted a map showing the location of the subject property and the comparable properties. On the map, none of the appellant's comparables are located near the subject property. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment to $11,242 or $9.60 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment of $16,135 was disclosed. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $13,454 or $11.49 per square foot of living area. The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on four suggested comparable properties with the same assigned neighborhood and classification codes as the subject. The comparables are located in the same block or tax block as the subject property. The comparables are improved with one-story dwellings of frame and masonry construction. Each dwelling is 56 years old, and the dwellings contain either 1,171 or 1,198 square feet of living area. Three comparables have a crawl-space foundation, and another comparable has a concrete slab foundation. Each comparable has a one-car garage. These properties have improvement assessments ranging from $14,251 to $15,984 or from $12.17 to $13.49 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties presented assessment data on a total of eight suggested comparables. The Board finds that all of the comparables submitted were similar to the subject in story height, exterior construction, age, and foundation. However, the Board finds the appellant's comparables were not located near the subject property and also had more living area than the subject. As a result, the appellant's comparables received reduced weight in the Board's analysis. The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the comparables submitted by the board of review. Located on the same block or tax block as the subject, the board of review comparables were the same age as the subject, and three of the comparables had the same amount of living area as the subject. The board of review comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $12.17 to $13.49 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $11.49 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
