

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: John Bocskay, III
DOCKET NO.: 15-23622.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-18-110-001-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are John Bocskay, III, the appellant(s), by attorney Stephanie Park, of Park & Longstreet, P.C. in Rolling Meadows; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 6,412
IMPR.: $15,392
TOTAL: $21,804

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story dwelling of frame construction with 1,288 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 59 years old. The property has an 12,214 square foot site and is located in Maine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of the overvaluation argument, the appellant submitted sales data for four suggested comparables. The comparables ranged: in sale date from October 2012 to June 2015; in sale price from $90,000 to $160,000; and in sale price per square foot, including land, from $70.26 to $130.61.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review-Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $21,804. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $218,040, or $169.29 per square foot of living area, including land, when applying the assessment level of 10% as established by the Cook County Real Property Classification Ordinance.

In support of the market value argument, the board of review submitted information on four comparable sales, ranging in sale price per square foot, including land, from $195.71 to $222.11. These sales sold from June 2012 through December 2013.

The board of review also argued that the appellant's sale comparables #1 and #2 were tear-downs according to the attached Redfin.com printouts.

The appellant submitted written rebuttal distinguishing the board of review's comparables from the subject property.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the appellant's sale comparables #1 through #4, as well as the board of review's sale comparables #1 through #4. These comparables sold for prices ranging from $70.26 to $222.11 per square foot of living area, including land. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $169.29 per square foot of living area, including land, which is within the range established by the best comparable sales in this record. Based on this evidence the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified based on overvaluation.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
