

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Lin Tao
DOCKET NO.: 15-23634.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 08-08-407-020-1022

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Lin Tao, the appellant(s), by attorney Stephanie Park, of Park & Longstreet, P.C. in Rolling Meadows; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 864
IMPR.: $3,736
TOTAL: $4,600

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is a residential condominium unit with a 1.0956% ownership interest in the common elements. It is situated in a 96-unit, 31-year-old, multi-story building of masonry construction. The property has a 197,377 square foot site and is located in Elk Grove Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted a settlement statement disclosing the subject property was purchased on April 25, 2012 for a price of $46,000. The appellant's evidence indicated that there was a realtor involved in the transaction. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to reflect the purchase price.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted Notes on Appeal indicating the subject's current assessed value is $6,758. The board of review also provided a condominium sales analysis using five sales in the subject's building. These sales sold between September 2012 and August 2013. They ranged in sale price from $60,000 to $80,000 and in ownership percentage from 0.9921% to 1.0874%. The board also included a memorandum and prior cases decided by the Property Tax Appeal Board.

In written rebuttal, the appellant submitted a brief arguing the recent sale is the best evidence of market value and a unit's value should not be bound by internal sales.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant has met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the sale of the subject for $46,000. The appellant submitted evidence indicating the property was sold using a Realtor. Additionally, there was no evidence from either party that indicated the sale was compulsory. Since the market value of this parcel has been established, the assessment level of 10% as established by the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance shall apply, per the appellant's request. 86 Ill. Admin. Code § 1910.50(c)(3).

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
