

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: George Axiotis
DOCKET NO.: 15-23787.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-10-300-035-1020

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are George Axiotis, the appellant(s), by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,122
IMPR.: $15,915
TOTAL: $18,037

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a condominium unit within a 16-year old, multi-story, 83-unit condominium building. The property is located in Maine Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of the overvaluation argument, the appellant submitted the multiple listing database printout disclosing that the subject sold in June 2015 for a purchase price of $203,000. The appellant argues that the price should be reduced by 10% to account for personal property and that a 9% level of assessment should be applied to this adjusted sales price.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $18,037. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $180,370 when using the level of assessment for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on 11 sales of units within the subject's building that sold in March 2010 and September 2013 for prices ranging from $120,000 to $236,600. The board of review adjusted the sale prices by 7% to account for personal property.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property in June 2015 for a price of $203,000. The appellant provided evidence demonstrating the sale of the subject and that it was listed on the open market. The Board finds the board of review did not present any evidence to challenge the arm's length nature of the transaction. However, the Board gives no weight to the appellant's or board of review's adjustment for personal property as there is no evidence of this in the record. In addition, the Board finds the appellant incorrectly listed the level of assessment. Based on this record the Board finds the subject property had a market value of $203,000 as of the lien date and that the level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance is 10%. The Board finds the subject's current assessment is supported.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(b) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(b)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
