The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Matt Lessman, the appellant(s), by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

| DOCKET NO | PARCEL NUMBER | LAND | IMPRVMT | TOTAL |
|------------------|----------------------|-------------|----------------|--------------|

| 15-26351.002-R-1 | 14-30-103-057-1007 | 112 | 1,032 | $1,144 |

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a condominium unit and a parking unit within a nine-year old, multi-story, masonry, condominium building. The property is located in Lake View Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of the overvaluation argument, the appellant submitted evidence disclosing the subject property was purchased March 2013 for a price of $348,000. The appellant included the multiple listing database printout disclosing the subject was listed on the open market for 130 days. The appellant requests a 10% deduction for personal property and an assessment level of 9% of this reduced purchase price.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $32,196. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $321,960 when using the level of assessment for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four sales from units within 748,002. The board of review then made a 10% deduction for personal property and applied the percentage of ownership of these sales of 52.90% to arrive at a total value of the building of $1,385,708. The board of review multiplied this value by the subject percentage of ownership of 25.30% to arrive at a value for the subject of $350,584.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board also finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property in March 2013 for a price of $348,000. The appellant provided evidence demonstrating the sale of the subject and that it was listed on the open market. The Board finds neither the appellant nor the board of review presented any evidence to challenge the arm's length nature of the transaction. However, the Board gives no weight to the appellant's or board of review's adjustment for personal property as there is no evidence of this in the record. Based on this record the Board finds the subject property had a market value of $348,000 as of the lien date. The Board further finds the purchase price supports the assessment and a reduction is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(b) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(b)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
