

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Steve Nomura
DOCKET NO.: 15-29938.001 -R-1
PARCEL NO.: 26-06-303-050-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Steve Nomura, the appellant(s), by attorney Chris D. Sarris, of Steven B. Pearlman & Associates in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $3,124
IMPR.: $2,776
TOTAL: $5,900

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story dwelling of masonry construction with 966 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 62 years old. The property has a 3,906 square foot site and is located in Hyde Park Township, Cook County.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted a copy of the warranty deed and a copy of the settlement statement showing that realtor fees were paid and confirming the sale of the subject in December 4, 2015 for $59,000.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $10,079. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $100,790 or $104.33 per square foot of building area, land included, when using the 10% level of assessment for Cook County as determined by the Cook County Classification Code.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted six equity comparables and sales data for each comparable. In addition, the board of review submitted a brief stating that the subject's sale was not at fair market value due to the deed trail showing that a warranty deed was granted/conveyed to TP Housing Solutions LLC in November 2015 and later granted/conveyed a mortgage on December 9, 2015 to Nakagawa Makiko. In support, the board of review submitted the deed trail.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property on December 4, 2015 for a price of $59,000 or $61.07 per square foot of living area. The appellant provided evidence demonstrating the sale had the elements of an arm's length transaction. The Board finds the purchase price is below the market value reflected by the assessment. Based on this record the Board finds the subject property had a market value of $59,000 as of January 1, 2015. Since market value has been established the level of assessment for class 2 properties of 10.00% as determined by the Cook County classification ordinance shall apply.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
