

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mohammad Hassan
DOCKET NO.: 15-30426.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 20-14-207-009-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Mohammad Hassan, the appellant, by attorney Abby L. Strauss, of Schiller Strauss & Lavin PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $43,560
IMPR.: $68,079
TOTAL: $111,639

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry construction. The dwelling is approximately 107 years old and has 4,969 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, a fireplace and a two-car garage. The property has a 13,200 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Hyde Park Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables with the same assigned neighborhood and classification codes as the subject. The appellant did not provide information regarding the comparables' proximity to the subject. The comparables are improved with masonry dwellings. The appellant did not provide the comparables' story height; however, based upon the appellant's photographic evidence, the comparables appear to be two-story in design. The dwellings are from 109 to 120 years old. The comparables had features of varying degrees of similarity when compared to the subject. The appellant's grid analysis indicates the dwellings range in size from 4,722 to 4,824 square feet of living area, and their improvement assessments range from $31,000 to $57,695 or from $6.56 to $11.96 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment to $48,348 or $9.73 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment of $111,639 was disclosed. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $68,079 or $13.70 per square foot of living area. The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on four suggested comparable properties with the same assigned neighborhood and classification codes as the subject. Two of the comparables were described as being located on the same block as the subject, and the other two comparables were described as being located one-quarter mile from the subject. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of masonry, frame and masonry or frame construction. The dwellings are from 100 to 112 years old. The comparables had features of varying degrees of similarity when compared to the subject. The board of review's grid analysis indicates the dwellings range in size from 3,333 to 4,876 square feet of living area and their improvement assessments range from $68,926 to $77,400 or from $15.15 to $21.34 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

The appellant's attorney submitted a rebuttal. Counsel stated that board of review comparables #2 through #4 had less living area than the subject and comparable #4 also differed in exterior construction.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties presented assessment data on a total of seven suggested comparables. The Board finds board of review comparables #2 through #4 had significantly less living area than the subject. As a result, these comparables received reduced weight in the Board's analysis. The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables and board of review comparable #1. The Board finds these comparables were more similar to the subject in living area and board of review comparable #1 was located in close proximity to the subject. The four best comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $31,000 to $73,889 or $6.56 to $15.15 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $68,079 or $13.70 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
