

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Pat Radulovic
DOCKET NO.: 15-30431.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 12-25-405-040-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Pat Radulovic, the appellant, by attorney Abby L. Strauss, of Schiller Strauss & Lavin PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,887
IMPR.: $16,295
TOTAL: $19,182

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with a one and one-half story dwelling of masonry construction with 1,278 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 63 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning and a two-car garage. The property has a 4,125 square foot site and is located in Elmwood Park, Leyden Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables with the same assigned neighborhood and classification codes as the subject. The comparables are improved with dwellings of masonry or frame and masonry construction. The appellant did not provide the comparables' story height; however, based upon the appellant's photographic evidence, the comparables appear to be one and one-half story in design. The dwellings are from 84 to 86 years old. The comparables had features of varying degrees of similarity when compared to the subject. The appellant's grid analysis indicates the dwellings range in size from 1,165 to 1,418 square feet of living area, and their improvement assessments range from $9,026 to $10,942 or from $7.61 to $7.75 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment to $9,841 or $7.70 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment of $19,182 was disclosed. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $16,295 or $12.75 per square foot of living area. The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on four suggested comparable properties with the same assigned neighborhood and classification codes as the subject. Three of the comparables were described as being located in the same block as the subject property. The comparables are improved with one or one and one-half story dwellings of masonry construction. The dwellings are from 45 to 89 years old. The comparables had features of varying degrees of similarity when compared to the subject. The board of review's grid analysis indicates the dwellings range in size from 1,045 to 1,470 square feet of living area and their improvement assessments range from $16,255 to $20,879 or from $13.27 to $19.06 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties presented assessment data on a total of seven suggested comparables. The Board finds the appellant's comparables and board of review comparables #3 and #4 were significantly older than the subject and received reduced weight in the Board's analysis. The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be board of review comparable #1. This comparable was most similar to the subject in age and was located in the same block as the subject. As further support, the Board finds board of review comparable #2 was also similar to the subject in location, exterior construction and foundation. Board of review comparables #1 and #2 had improvement assessments of $13.27 and $19.06 per square foot of living area, respectively. The subject's improvement assessment of $12.75 per square foot of living area is less than the improvement assessments of the best comparables in this record on per square foot basis. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
