

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Tirell, LLC
DOCKET NO.: 15-30507.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 27-27-206-053-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Tirell, LLC, the appellant, by attorney Abby L. Strauss of Schiller Strauss & Lavin PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,625
IMPR.: $9,508
TOTAL: $12,133

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story dwelling of frame construction. The dwelling is approximately 40 years old and has 959 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a concrete slab foundation and a two-car garage. The property has a 7,500 square foot site and is located in Orland Hills, Orland Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-02 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted evidence disclosing the subject property was purchased on March 28, 2013 for a price of $107,100. In Section IV – Recent Sale Data of the residential appeal form, the appellant stated the property was purchased from an individual; the parties to the transaction were not related; the property was sold by a realtor; the property had been advertised for sale with the multiple listing service; and property sold in settlement of a contract for deed. The appellant did not answer the question that asked how long the subject had been exposed to the market. To document the transaction, the appellant submitted copies of the settlement statement, the sale contract, and the Illinois Real Estate Transfer Declaration (PTAX-203). The settlement statement revealed that commissions had been paid to two realty firms, and the transfer declaration disclosed that the property had been advertised for sale. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to reflect the purchase price.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $12,133. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $119,419 or $124.52 per square foot of living area, land included, when using the 2015 three-year average median level of assessment for class 2 property of 10.16% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four comparable sales that sold from June 2012 to May 2015 for prices that ranged from $174,900 to $275,000 or from $182.38 to $354.84 per square foot of living area, land included. The comparables have different assigned neighborhood codes than the subject; however, one of the comparables is described as being located one-quarter mile from the subject. Their sites range from 5,000 to 7,941 square feet of land area. The comparables range in age from 39 to 43 years old and contain either 775 or 959 square feet of living area. Three of the comparables have full finished basements, and one has a crawl-space foundation. Each comparable has a garage, and three comparables have central air conditioning. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

The appellant submitted a rebuttal, wherein counsel stated that the subject property had been listed on MLS for four months prior to its sale.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board gave little weight to the subject's sale because it did not occur proximate in time to the assessment date at issue. The subject sold on March 28, 2013, which was over 21 months prior to the January 1, 2015 assessment date. The Board finds the best evidence of market value in the record to be board of review comparable #4. This comparable sold more proximate in time to the assessment date and was also similar to the subject in nearly every characteristic. Comparable #4 sold in May 2015 for a price of $182.38 per square foot of living area, land included. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $124.52 per square foot of living area, including land, which is below the market value of the best comparable sale in the record. Based on this record, the Board finds the subject's assessment is reflective of market value and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
