

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Deborah Karp
DOCKET NO.: 15-34975.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-02-207-041-1007

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Deborah Karp, the appellant(s); and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 1,012
IMPR.: $16,692
TOTAL: $17,704

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a residential condominium unit with a 12.93% interest in the common elements. The unit is part of an eight-unit condominium building that is 93 years old. The property has a 6,263 square foot site and is located in West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted limited information on four equity comparables of condominium units located in other condominium buildings. The appellant did not provide a percentage of ownership in the common elements for the comparables, nor did the appellant complete their equity grid sheet.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $17,704. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $16,692. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted equity information on the other seven units located in the subject's building. The units had ownership percentage that ranged from 11.45% to 13.23%. One of the units, identified by PIN - 1003, had the identical percentage of ownership in the common elements as the subject unit.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review's comparables. The subject unit has an improvement assessment that is within the range of the other seven units located in the subject's building, and its assessment is identical to the unit with the same percentage of ownership in the common elements. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code.
