

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Steven Jambois
DOCKET NO.: 15-35041.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-32-219-042-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Steven Jambois, the appellant, by attorney Joanne Elliott, of Elliott & Associates, P.C. in Des Plaines; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $28,125
IMPR.: $146,082
TOTAL: $174,207

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a three-story dwelling of masonry construction with 4,375 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 132 years old. Features of the home include a finished basement, central air conditioning and a garage.¹ The property has a 3,125 square foot site and is located in Chicago, North Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

¹ The parties differ as to the story-height of the subject dwelling, whether the subject's basement is finished and whether the subject has a garage. The Board finds neither party submitted a sketch of the improvements, however, the appellant's appraisers disclosed that a physical interior and exterior inspection of the property was performed and submitted photographs of the interior of the garage. The parties' exterior photographs appear to show a three-story dwelling.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted a retrospective appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $1,350,000 as of January 1, 2015. The appellant's appraisal was completed using the sales comparison approach in estimating a market value for the subject property. The appellant's appraisers selected five suggested comparable properties that were two or three-story masonry dwellings that ranged in size from 2,600 to 4,975 square feet of living area. The comparables were built from 1868 to 1987. The comparables had other features with varying degrees of similarity to the subject. The comparables had sale dates ranging from July 2014 to January 2015 for prices ranging from $770,000 to $1,577,500 or from $248.81 to $317.09 per square foot of living area, including land.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $174,207. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $1,742,070 or $398.19 per square foot of building area, land included, when using level of assessments for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted a grid analysis containing information on three sales that were located in the subject's neighborhood code. One comparables was located on the same street as the subject. The comparables were two or three-story dwellings of masonry construction that ranged in size from 3,899 to 4,800 square feet of living area. The comparables were 127 or 132 years old. The comparables had other features with varying degrees of similarity to the subject. The sales occurred from December 2014 to June 2015 for prices ranging from $2,010,000 to $3,700,000 or from $515.52 to $920.40 per square foot of living area, including land.

The appellant submitted rebuttal critiquing the board of review's submission.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the board of review's comparable sales. These comparables were most similar to the subject in location, design, age, size and features. These comparables also sold proximate in time to the January 1, 2015 assessment date at issue. The most similar comparables sold from December 2014 to June 2015 for prices ranging from $2,010,000 to $3,700,000 or from $515.52 to $920.40 per square foot of living area, including land. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $1,742,070 or $398.19 per square foot of living area, including land, which is below the range established by the best comparables in this record. The Board gave less weight to the appellant's appraisal evidence due to the appraisers use of comparable properties that were significantly newer and/or substantially different in size, when compared to the subject.

Based on this evidence the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
