Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of five condominium units within a 103-year old, multi-story, 16-unit condominium building. The property is located in West Chicago Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of the overvaluation argument, the appellant submitted evidence of the sale of two units within the subject's building. These units sold in March 2011 and May 2014 for $129,000 and $131,000 for a total amount of $260,000. The appellant argues that the total should be reduced by 10% to account for personal property for an adjusted value of $234,000. The appellant then applies the percentage of ownership of these sales of 11.79% to arrive at a total value of the building of $1,984,733. The appellant then multiplies the subject's percentage of ownership of for each unit to arrive at a requested market value for each unit. The appellant then requests that a 9.4% level of assessment should be applied to this adjusted value.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $67,621. The subject's assessment reflects market values for each unit that range from $119,020 to $187,660 for each unit when using the level of assessment for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on one sales from a unit within the subject's building. The unit sold in May 2014 for $131,000. The board adjusted the sales down by 5% to account for personal property for an adjusted value of $124,450. The board of review then applies the percentage of ownership of these sales of 5.29% to arrive at a total value of the building of $2,352,551. The board of review then applied the percentage of ownership of the units under appeal, 30.34%, to arrive at a market value of the combined units of $713,764. The comparables utilized by the board of review was also submitted by the appellant.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the appellant's comparable and the board of review's comparable that sold in May 2014 for $131,000. The Board gives little weight to the appellant's second comparable as the 2011 sale date is too far removed from the lien date in question. However, the Board gives no weight to the appellant's or board of review's adjustment for personal property as there is no evidence of this in the record. Therefore, the Board will apply the percentage of ownership of this comparable of 5.29% to the unadjusted total to arrive at a value for the building of $2,476,371. In applying the subject's percentage of ownerships for each unit, the Board finds market values from $132,238 to $208,510. The Board finds the appellant incorrectly listed the level of assessment. In applying the correct level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%, the Board finds the appellant failed to show by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject property was overvalued and a reduction is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
