

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: James Kelly
DOCKET NO.: 15-37963.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-07-323-008-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are James Kelly, the appellant, by attorney Anthony M. Farace of Amari & Locallo in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,092
IMPR.: $14,808
TOTAL: $18,900

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one and one-half story, multi-family dwelling of frame construction. The dwelling is approximately 60 years old and has 1,660 square feet of living area. Features of the dwelling include a full finished basement, central air conditioning and a two-car garage. The number of apartment units was not disclosed. The property has a 3,720 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted evidence disclosing the subject property was purchased on April 1, 2013 for a price of $189,000 or for $113.86 per square foot of living area, land included. In Section IV – Recent Sale Data of the residential appeal form, the appellant stated the property was purchased from individuals; the parties to the transaction were not related; the property was sold using a realtor; the property had been advertised for sale with a multiple listing service, and the property was on the market for 82 days prior to its sale. To document the transaction, the appellant submitted copies of an addendum to the settlement statement, the warranty deed, and the City of Chicago real property transfer tax declaration. The transfer declaration disclosed that the property had been advertised for sale. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to reflect the purchase price.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $28,992. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $285,354 or $171.90 per square foot of living area, land included, when using the 2015 three-year average median level of assessment for class 2 property of 10.16% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance as determined by the Illinois Department of Revenue.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three comparable sales that sold from May 2013 to November 2014 for prices that ranged from $170,000 to $325,000 or from $122.92 to $217.25 per square foot of living area, land included. The comparables have the same assigned neighborhood and classification codes as the subject. Their sites are either 3,600 or 3,720 square feet of land area. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of frame or frame and masonry construction. The dwellings range in age from 87 to 99 years old and contain from 1,383 to 1,496 square feet of living area. Two of the comparables have full unfinished basements, and the other comparable has a crawl-space foundation. One of the comparables has a two-car garage. The number of apartment units was not disclosed. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property in April 2013 for a price of $189,000. The appellant provided evidence demonstrating the sale had many of the elements of an arm's length transaction. The appellant completed Section IV - Recent Sale Data of the residential appeal form disclosing the parties to the transaction were not related, the property was sold using a realtor, and the property was on the market for 82 days prior to its sale. The Board finds the purchase price is below the market value reflected by the assessment.

The Board finds the board of review did not present any evidence to challenge the arm's length nature of the transaction and was not able to refute the appellant's contention that the purchase price was reflective of market value. The Board finds the board of review comparables differed significantly from the subject in design, age and central air conditioning and one of the comparables also differed in foundation. As a result, the board of review's market evidence received reduced weight. Based on this record, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment commensurate with the appellant's request is appropriate.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
