

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ashok Pandya
DOCKET NO.: 15-39509.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-15-307-064-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ashok Pandya, the appellant, by attorney Joanne Elliott, of Elliott & Associates, P.C. in Des Plaines; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $1,395
IMPR.: $5,605
TOTAL: $7,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a two-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction with 1,540 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 48 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement and central air conditioning. The property has a 1,860 square foot site and is located in Des Plaines, Maine Township, Cook County.

The subject property was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under docket number 14-23378.001-R-1. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board rendered a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $7,000 based on the evidence submitted by the parties. The 2014 and 2015 tax years were within the same general assessment period for residential property. The appellant submitted an affidavit that disclosed the appellant's address is the same as the subject property's address, thereby making the subject an owner occupied dwelling.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the final assessment of the subject property totaling 15,009 was disclosed. The board of review submitted information on four comparable sales. The comparables were two-story dwellings that had varying degrees of similarity to the subject. The comparables had sale dates occurring from May to November 2014 for prices ranging from $170,000 to $195,000 or from $110.39 to $124.44 per square foot of living area, including land.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. Pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185), the Board finds the prior year's decision should be carried forward to the subsequent year subject only to equalization.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) provides in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's 2014 assessment. The record further indicates that the subject property is an owner occupied dwelling and that 2014 and 2015 are within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction subsequent to the Board's decision or that the assessment year in question is in a different general assessment period. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the Board's prior year's decision plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(b) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(b)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
