

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Deborah Wroblewski
DOCKET NO.: 15-39828.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 12-25-434-046-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Deborah Wroblewski, the appellant, by attorney Anthony Lewis, of the Law Offices of Gary H. Smith in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $802
IMPR.: $16,698
TOTAL: $17,500

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a 2014 Final Administrative Decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) in order to challenge the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with a three-story masonry dwelling. The building is approximately 10 years old and contains 2,052 square feet of living area on a slab foundation. Features include central air conditioning, and a 2-car garage. The site is 1,147 square feet in size and is located in Elmwood Park, Leyden Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-95 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant cited contention of law as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted a copy of the 2014 Property Tax Appeal Board Final Administrative Decision (Docket #14-34590.001-R-1) in which the total assessment was lowered to $17,500. The subject's 2014 assessment reflects a market value of $175,000 at the 10% level of assessment for class 2 properties or $85.28 per square foot of living area including land. In that decision, the Board found the board of review agreed with the assessment conclusion contained in the appellant's documentation. Although the appellant did not specifically state the dwelling is owner-occupied, the address of the owner and the address of the subject property are the same on the appeal form. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the 2014 Property Tax Appeal Board decision be rolled over to 2015.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $20,963. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $209,630 or $102.16 per square foot of living area including land. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on one equity comparable. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant raised a contention of law asserting that the assessment of the subject property as established by the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2014 tax year should be carried forward to the 2015 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). When a contention of law is raised the burden of proof is a preponderance of the evidence. (See 5 ILCS 100/10-15). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the assessment as established by the Board for the 2014 tax year should be carried forward to the tax year at issue subject only to equalization as provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) states in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's assessment for the 2014 tax year. The record further indicates that the subject property is an owner-occupied dwelling and that 2014 and 2015 are within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction after the Board's decision or that the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board has been reversed or modified upon review. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the assessment as established in the Board's prior year's decision plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
