

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: K. Mathew Sadhu
DOCKET NO.: 15-39846.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 31-03-201-121-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are K. Mathew Sadhu, the appellant, by Jessica Hill-Magiera, Attorney at Law in Lake Zurich; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $1,403
IMPR.: $1,408
TOTAL: $2,811

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property is improved with a one-story dwelling containing 1,192 square feet of living area. The subject is of frame construction and is approximately 38 years old. The subject features a slab foundation, central air conditioning and is located on a 2,079 square foot site located in Rich Township, Cook County. The subject is a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. In support of this overvaluation argument the appellant submitted three comparable sales with varying degrees of similarity to the subject. The comparables sold from March 2014 to October 2015 for prices ranging from $26,300 to $40,000 or from $22.63 to $33.00 per square foot of living area, including land. The appellant also submitted a copy of the final decision issued by the Property Tax Appeal Board under Docket Number 14-34471.001-R-1 wherein the Property Tax Appeal Board reduced the subject's assessment to $4,383. The appellant indicated the subject's 2015 assessment was $7,227 which reflects a market value of approximately $72,270 under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance level of 10% for class 2 property. Based on this evidence the appellant requested the subject's assessment be reduced.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" or submit any evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property.

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. The Board further finds the evidence in the record supports a reduction in the subject's assessment.

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 331 Ill.App.3d 1038 (3rd Dist. 2002). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the only evidence of market value in the record are the comparables submitted by the appellant. The comparables sold for prices ranging from $26,300 to $40,000 or from $22.63 to $33.00 per square foot of living area, including land. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $60.63 per square foot of living area, including land, which is greater than the comparable sales in this record. The board of review did not submit its evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property or timely refute the appellant's argument as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board and is found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. Based on this record the Property Tax Appeal Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment commensurate with the appellant's request is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
