

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Joan Stanke
DOCKET NO.: 15-40215.001-C-1
PARCEL NO.: 01-33-207-007-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Joan Stanke, the appellant, by attorney George N. Reveliotis of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,366
IMPR.: $49,854
TOTAL: $52,220

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) challenging the assessment for the 2015 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a single-family owner-occupied residence that is located in South Barrington, Barrington Township, Cook County.¹

The appellant presented legal argument before the Property Tax Appeal Board claiming the subject's 2015 assessment was incorrect as a matter of law. The appellant requested the Property Tax Appeal Board carry forward its prior year's decision as provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The record shows the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $52,220 the prior tax year under Docket Number 14-34856.001-R-1. The appellant's attorney asserted that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence that has not sold and that tax years 2014 and 2015 are within the same general assessment period. Based on this argument, the appellant requested the subject's assessment as determined by the Board be carried forward to the 2015 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185).

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" or any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Adm.Code §1910.40(a). Therefore, the board of review was found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Adm.Code §1910.69(a).

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the subject's assessment was incorrect based on a contention of law. Unless otherwise provided by law or stated in the agency's rules, the standard of proof in any contested case hearing conducted under this Act by an agency shall be a preponderance of the evidence. (5 ILCS 100/10-15). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The appellant argued that the Property Tax Appeal Board's decision for the 2014 tax year should be carried forward to the 2015 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185) The record shows the subject property was the matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior tax year under Document Number 14-34856.001-R-1. In that appeal, the Board issued a decision lowering the subject's assessment to $52,220.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) states in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The Board finds section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) is controlling in this matter and, based on its statutory mandates, the Board find its decision for the 2014 tax year shall be carried forward to the subsequent tax year. The Board finds the evidence in the record indicates that the subject property is an owner-occupied dwelling and that the 2014 and 2015 tax years are within the same general assessment period for Barrington Township. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property has since sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a different fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based or that the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board has been reversed or modified upon review. For these reasons, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the Board's prior year's decision of $52,220.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
