

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Julie A. Andrea
DOCKET NO.: 16-04974.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-18-203-010

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Julie A. Andrea, the appellant, by attorney Jessica Hill-Magiera in Lake Zurich; and the Lake County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $177,774
IMPR.: $314,603
TOTAL: $492,377

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of brick and wood siding exterior construction with 6,205 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1997. Features of the home include an unfinished basement, central air conditioning, three fireplaces and an attached garage with 1,713 square feet of building area. The property has a 60,113 square foot site and is located in Lake Forest, West Deerfield Township, Lake County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on ten equity comparables improved with two-story dwellings that range in size from 5,494 to 6,651 square feet of living area. The dwellings were built from 1990 to 1999. Each comparable has a basement. These properties have improvement assessments ranging from $215,168 to $288,846 or from $37.61 to $43.83 per square foot of living area. The appellant requested the improvement assessment be reduced to $233,347 or $37.61 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $492,377. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $314,603 or $50.70 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables improved with two-story dwellings with brick, wood siding or brick and wood siding exteriors that range in size from 6,225 to 6,882 square feet of living area. The homes were built from 1991 to 2002. Each property has a basement with two having finished area, central air conditioning, two or three fireplaces and a garage ranging in size from 866 to 1,716 square feet of building area. These properties have improvement assessments ranging from $315,633 to $395,602 or from $47.70 to $57.48 per square foot of living area. The board of review requested the assessment be sustained.

The appellant's counsel submitted rebuttal comments asserting that the board of review did not dispute or comment on the appellant's equity comparables and that 11 of the 14 comparables submitted by the parties support a reduction in the assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board gives less weight to the appellant's evidence as she did not include information about the dwellings' features or amenities other than size and basement area, which would assist the Property Tax Appeal Board in conducting a meaningful analysis to determine their comparability or similarity to the property under appeal. For the Board to properly evaluate the comparables, it is necessary to have the salient characteristics associated with the dwellings so as to be able to determine the degree of comparability and possible adjustments needed to the properties to make them more equivalent to the subject property. Conversely, the board of review analysis included salient facts about the comparables including a copy of the property record card for each comparable, which adds credibility to its evidence.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be comparables submitted by the board of review. These comparables have improvement assessments that range from $315,633 to $395,602 or from $47.70 to $57.48 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $314,603 or $50.70 per square foot of living area falls below the overall range but is within the range established by the best comparables in this record on a square foot basis. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
