

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Dina Berger-Koecher
DOCKET NO.: 16-20130.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-12-417-012-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Dina Berger-Koecher, the appellant, by attorney Timothy E. Moran, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $8,428
IMPR.: $60,361
TOTAL: $68,789

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of stucco exterior construction with 3,009 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 94 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, a fireplace and a two-car garage. The property has a 6,020 square foot site and is located in Evanston, Evanston Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends improvement assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables, two of which were located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables were similar two-story dwellings of stucco, masonry or frame and masonry exterior construction containing from 2,296 to 3,198 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 80 to 113 years old. The homes feature full or partial basements, two of which have finished area, and one or two fireplaces. Three comparables have central air conditioning and four comparables have either a one-car or a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $52,900 to $59,099 or from $17.94 to $23.04 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $54,854 or $18.23 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $68,789. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $60,361 or $20.06 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables that were located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property. One comparable was also located on the same block as the subject property. The comparables were similar two-story dwellings of stucco or masonry construction containing from 2,318 to 2,671 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 94 to 100 years old. The homes feature full basements, one of which has finished area, one or two fireplaces and a one-car or a two-car garage. Two comparables have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $52,456 to $61,145 or from $22.18 to $25.86 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of nine comparable properties for the Board's consideration. The Board gave less weight to the appellant's comparables #1 through #3 due to their locations outside of the subject's neighborhood code. The Board also gave less weight to the appellant's comparable #5, as well as the board of review's comparables #2 and #4, due to their smaller dwelling sizes when compared to the subject. Therefore, the Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparable #4, as well as the board of review's comparables #1 and #3. These comparables were most similar to the subject in location, style, age, size and features. These comparables had improvement assessments ranging from $59,099 to $61,145 or from $18.48 to $22.92 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $60,361 or $20.06 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in the record. After adjusting the best comparable for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which exists on the basis of the evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
