

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Harry Gottlieb
DOCKET NO.: 16-20413.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-34-415-014-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Harry Gottlieb, the appellant, by attorney Timothy E. Moran, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $11,000
IMPR.: $67,939
TOTAL: $78,939

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 3,545 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 100 years old. Features of the home include a partial unfinished basement, and a two-car garage. The property has an 8,800 square foot site and is located in Evanston, Evanston Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends improvement assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables with the same classification codes but different neighborhood assessment codes than the subject. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of masonry, frame, or stucco exterior construction containing from 3,392 to 3,678 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 90 to 118 years old and have full basements, two of which have finished areas. Four comparables have central air conditioning, each comparable has from one to three fireplaces, and four comparables have either a one-car or a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $52,022 to $53,922 or from $14.36 to $15.71 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $54,770 or $15.45 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $78,939. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $67,939 or $19.16 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables with the same classification and neighborhood assessment codes as the subject. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of frame or stucco exterior construction containing from 3,000 to 3,184 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 103 to 120 years old and have partial or full unfinished basements. Three comparables have central air conditioning, and each comparable has a fireplace and a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $62,205 to $69,428 or from $20.73 to $21.81 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted nine suggested comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables due to their locations within different neighborhood assessment codes and/or dissimilar finished basements when compared to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review comparables. The Board gave greater weight to these comparables because they are located within the subject's same neighborhood code. These comparables are also most similar to the subject in design, age, dwelling size, and most features. These comparables have improvement assessments that range from $62,205 to $69,428 or from $20.73 to $21.81 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $67,939 or $19.16 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables contained in this record with its total improvement assessment and slightly below on a per-square-foot basis. After considering adjustments to the comparables when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence presented.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
