

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Deerwood Farms Inc.
DOCKET NO.: 16-20522.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 01-06-100-008-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Deerwood Farms Inc., the appellant(s); and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 8,109
IMPR.: $39,885
TOTAL: $47,994

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame construction. The dwelling is three years old. The property has an 392,040 square foot site and is located in Barrington Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on 10 equity comparables. These comparables are located from two miles to eight miles away from the subject property. The appellant also states that the subject contains 2,302 square feet of living area but does not submit any evidence to support this claim.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $76,542. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $68,433, or $25.74 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review did not submit any comparable properties.

The appellant submitted evidence in rebuttal, which could not be considered by the Board under the Official Rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. Section 1910.66(c) of Title 86 of the Administrative Code states: "Rebuttal evidence shall not consist of new evidence such as an appraisal or newly discovered comparable properties. A party to the appeal should be precluded from submitting its own case in chief in the guise of rebuttal evidence." 86 Ill.Admin.Code § 1910.66(c)(emphasis added). This appraisal and additional sales comparables were submitted in rebuttal, and, therefore, was not timely filed. Therefore, the Board will not consider it.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The appellant did not submit any evidence to support the argument regarding the size of the improvement. Therefore, for purposes of this appeal only, the Board finds that the subject contains 2,659 square feet of living area. Moreover, the Board finds that the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables #6, #7, and #8. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $14.86 to $15.98 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $25.74 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
