

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Bruce Wilson
DOCKET NO.: 16-21181.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-27-103-002-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Bruce Wilson, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld and Associates, LLC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $33,250
IMPR.: $134,600
TOTAL: $167,850

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 4,954 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 92 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, and two fireplaces. The property has a 17,500 square foot site and is located in Kenilworth, New Trier Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with class 2-06 dwellings of frame or masonry exterior construction that range in size from 4,671 to 4,955 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 113 to 118 years old. Two comparables have full unfinished basements and one comparable has a partial basement with a finished area. Two comparables have central air conditioning. Each comparable has one, two or three fireplaces and a two-car or a three-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $115,322 to $128,412 or from $24.58 to $25.92 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $124,147 or $25.06 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $167,850. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $134,600 or $27.17 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with class 2-06 dwellings of masonry exterior construction that range in size from 4,415 to 4,674 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 90 to 92 years old and have full basements, two of which have finished areas. Each comparable has central air conditioning, one, two or three fireplaces, and a garage ranging in size from a two-car to a three car. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $127,688 to $198,489 or from $28.15 to $42.47 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds none of the six comparables presented by both parties are truly similar to the subject property. The appellant's comparables are all considerably older in age and comparable #3 has a dissimilar finished basement when compared to the subject. Although the board of review comparables are closer in age, they have smaller dwelling sizes and/or dissimilar finished basements when compared to the subject. In addition, the subject lacks a garage and all of the comparables submitted by both parties have garages ranging in size from a two-car to a three-car. Both parties' comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $24.58 to $42.47 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $27.17 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the comparables. After considering adjustments and differences in both parties' comparables, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex

Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
