

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ralph Heine
DOCKET NO.: 16-22906.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 02-21-206-012-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ralph Heine, the appellant, by attorney John S. Xydakis, of the Law Offices of John S. Xydakis in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $9,468
IMPR.: $23,636
TOTAL: $33,104

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1-story dwelling of masonry construction. The dwelling is 46 years old and has 1,665 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a 2-car garage. The property has a 29,134 square-foot site and is located in Palatine, Palatine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The subject's land assessment is not being contested in this appeal. In support of the inequity argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables with the same neighborhood and classification codes as the subject. The comparables are improved with 1-story dwellings of frame construction. The dwellings are from 61 to 80 years old and contain from 1,104 to 1,394 square feet of living area. Three comparables have basements, and one has a fireplace. Information regarding garages was not provided on the appellant's grid analysis; however, the appellant's photographic evidence revealed that each comparable has a garage. The appellant also submitted a map which revealed the comparables were located near the subject property. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $13,296 to $17,631 or from $10.98 to $12.65 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment to $20,380 or $12.24 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the subject's final assessment of $33,104 was disclosed. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $23,636 or $14.20 per square foot of living area. The board of review presented descriptions and assessment information on four comparable properties. The comparables have the same neighborhood and classification codes as the subject and were described as being located a quarter-mile from the subject property. The comparables are improved with one 1½-story and three one-story dwellings of frame, masonry or frame and masonry construction. The dwellings are from 37 to 54 years old and contain from 1,456 to 1,773 square feet of living area. The comparables have full basements, with one having finished area. Three comparables have central air conditioning; each comparable has a fireplace; and the comparables have garages that range from 2-car to 3-car. The board of review's comparable properties have improvement assessments ranging from $22,613 to $29,372 or from $14.54 to $16.57 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties presented assessment data on a total of eight suggested comparables. The Board finds the appellant's comparables were older than the subject; comparable #1 differed from the subject in foundation; and comparables #1 through #3 had significantly less living area. As a result, the appellant's comparables received reduced weight in the Board's analysis. The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the comparables submitted by the board of review. The Board finds these comparables were closer in age to the subject and were also similar to the subject in location, living area and most features. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $22,613 to $29,372 or from $14.54 to $16.57 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $23,636 or $14.20 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the best comparables in this record on a per square foot basis. After considering adjustments to the comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
