

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Igor Boguslavsky
DOCKET NO.: 16-24080.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-06-404-056-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Igor Boguslavsky, the appellant(s), by attorney Adam E. Bossov, of the Law Offices of Adam E. Bossov, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $39,160
IMPR.: $183,741
TOTAL: $222,901

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is a nine year-old, two-story dwelling of masonry construction containing 4,284 square feet of living area. Features of the subject include a full finished basement, central air conditioning, three fireplaces and a two-car garage. The property has a 17,800 square foot site located in Glencoe, New Trier Township, Cook County. It is a Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity and overvaluation as the bases of the appeal. In support of the assessment inequity argument, the appellant submitted information on four suggested equity comparable properties. In support of the overvaluation argument, the appellant submitted information on four suggested comparable sales. These properties ranged from 4,327 to 4,687 square feet of living area. The sales occurred from November 1998 through November 2013 and ranged from $179.43 to $768.08 per square foot of living area including land. The appellant also disclosed the subject was sold in December 2014 for $2,800,000.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $222,901. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $183,741, or $42.89 per square foot of living area. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $2,229,010, or $520.31 per square foot of living area including land, when applying the 2016 level of assessment of 10.00% for Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three suggested equity comparable properties that ranged from 3,937 to 4,741 square feet of living area. The board of review also disclosed the subject was sold in December 2014 for $2,800,000.

At hearing, the appellant argued that his comparable property #4 was a recent sale in 2013 and was similar with the subject in various key property characteristics.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparable(s) #4, and the board of review's comparable(s) #1 and #3. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $38.05 to $45.40 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $42.89 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and holds that a reduction in the subject's assessment based on assessment inequity is not justified.

The appellant also contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant submitted four sale comparable properties. Only one, comparable #4 that sold in November 2013, is a recent sale. The others sold from 1998 through 2006. These sales were not recent and are, therefore, given no weight. See 86 Admin.Code.§1910.65(c)(4). The board of review did not submit sale comparable properties. Consequently, the record disclosed only one recent sale as a comparable property. Since the record does not include “not fewer than three recent sales of suggested comparable properties” the Board finds the appellant did not meet the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject was overvalued. Id.

As for the December 2014 sale of the subject for $2,800,000, the appellant did not argue the subject was overvalued based on this recent sale, and there is no documentary evidence in the record of this sale. Consequently, the Board finds the recent sale of the subject does not support a finding by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject was overvalued.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
