

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Pranav Parekh
DOCKET NO.: 16-26256.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 08-27-102-117-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Pranav Parekh, the appellant(s), by attorney Noah J. Schmidt, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $1,981
IMPR.: $37,836
TOTAL: $39,817

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2,202 square foot parcel of land improved with a 38-year old, two-story, masonry, multi-family dwelling containing 5,329 square feet of building area. The property is located in Elk Grove Village, Elk Grove Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of the market value argument, the appellant submitted a copy of the escrow trust disbursement statement disclosing that the subject was purchased on April 8, 2014 for $415,000 or $77.88 per square foot of building area. The disbursement statement discloses real estate brokerage fees paid. The appellant petition lists a sale price of $330,000. The appellant then applies an incorrect median level of assessment to arrive at a requested assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the subject's assessment of $39,817 which reflects a market value of $398,170 or $74.72 per square foot of building area using the Cook County Real Estate Classification Ordinance level of assessment for class 2 property of 10%.

In support of the assessment the board of review submitted three sales comparables. These properties are described as two-story, masonry or frame and masonry, multi-family dwellings. They range in age from 38 to 43 and size from 4,670 to 5,686 square feet of building area. They sold in from January 2013 to June 2016 for prices ranging from $72.99 to $100.64 per square foot of building area. The board of review also listed the sale of the subject in April 2014 for $415,000.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property in April 2014 for a price of $415,000. The Board further finds that the subject's current assessment reflects a market value that is slightly below the purchase prices and a reduction in the assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
