

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Nick Gianacakos
DOCKET NO.: 16-27821.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-01-322-040-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Nick Gianacakos, the appellant(s), by attorney Jessica Hill-Magiera, Attorney at Law in Lake Zurich; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 3,708
IMPR.: $ 12,570
TOTAL: $ 16,278

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of a one and one-half-story dwelling of frame construction with 1,676 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 106 years old. Features of the home include a partial finished basement. The property has a 9,272 square foot site, and is located in Lyons, Lyons Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. No evidence was submitted as to whether the subject is owner occupied.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on eight equity comparables. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to $14,071.

The board of review submitted its “Board of Review Notes on Appeal” disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $21,306. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $17,598, or $10.50 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables. The board of review’s evidence also states that the subject contains two improvements. No evidence was submitted in support of this claim.

In rebuttal, the appellant reaffirmed the evidence previously submitted.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did meet this burden of proof, and a reduction in the subject’s assessment is warranted.

The Board finds that the subject does not have two improvements. The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of this argument. Indeed, the photograph of the subject submitted by the board of review only shows one improvement upon the subject. Therefore, the Board’s decision addresses the one improvement upon the subject.

The Board finds that appellant comparable #5 and board of review comparable #3 represent the same property. The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant’s comparables #1, #2, #4, #5, and #7, and board of review comparables #1 and #3. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $6.18 to $9.48 per square foot of living area. The subject’s assessment of $10.50 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did demonstrate, with clear and convincing evidence, that the subject’s improvement was inequitably assessed, and that a reduction in the subject’s assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
