

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Humberto Guerrero
DOCKET NO.: 16-29048.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 12-13-415-027-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Humberto Guerrero, the appellant, by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 3,562
IMPR.: $16,149
TOTAL: $19,711

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of an 88-year old, one and one-half story, single-family dwelling with 1,311 square feet of living area of frame construction. Features of the home include: a full basement, central air conditioning, two full baths, and a two and one-half car garage. The property has a 3,750 square foot site and is located in Norwood Park Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2, residential property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant raised two issues: an overvaluation and equity arguments as the bases of the appeal. In support of both arguments, the appellant submitted information on four comparables. They are improved with single-family dwellings of frame or masonry construction, two of which are located on the subject's same street. The improvements ranged: in size from 1,078 to 1,542 square feet of living area and in improvement assessments from $12.82 to $17.50 per square foot. The properties sold from April, 2015 to November, 2016 for prices that ranged from $125.42 to $150.74 per square foot. Amenities included: one or two baths and a two-car garage.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $21,510. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $215,100 or $164.07 per square foot of living area, including land, when applying the level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%. Beyond this initial page, the board of review did not submit further evidence.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be appellant's comparable sales #1 through #4. These comparables sold for prices ranging from $125.42 to $150.74 per square foot of living area, including land. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $164.07 per square foot of living area, including land, which is above the range established by the best comparable sales in this record. Based on this evidence, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

Since the Board determined that a reduction was merited based upon an overvaluation argument, the Board finds that the subject property is equitably assessed after this aforementioned reduction and shall not address further the appellant's equity issue.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
